A Big Petition.

Hon. A. J. Carroll, Chairman of the National Democratic State Central Committee, called at the office of the Secretary of State Wednesday at Frankfort, and presented the petition required to have the name of Hon. James R. Hindman placed on the official ballot. One thousand names were sufficient, but over six thousand were on the big petition presented. The Assistant Secretary of State said the petition was regular and was all that was required, and receipted for the same. The document was circulated only seven days and mainly in fourteen counties.

The Courier-Journal says: "The Popocrats who have been proclaiming that Hindman will not get as many votes as Palmer and Buckner got in Kentucky last year may observe that the petition to place Hindman's name on the ballot has received as many signatures in only fourteen counties as Palmer and Buckner received votes in the entire State."

The Lexington Leader employees have presented editor Samuel Roberts with an elegant gold watch in honor of his appointment as Revenue Collector.

VERILY politics is a losing game for Dr. Hunter. His lawyers' fees in the bribery case cost a cool $3,000. Vindication comes high, but it was necessary in this case to get a McKinley plumb.

UNHAMPERED by the Chicago platform and free silver the Democrats could have won last year, and could easily win this year. Last year's lesson was a hard one but the silver Democrats seem to have profited little by the experience.

HON. JOHN CALDWELL, a former congressman from the Third district, who has for years advocated the silver doctrine, has renounced silver and Bryan. Slowly some of our friends are finding out that silver and Bryan are a dangerous combination for the Democratic party.

OF course Orator Bryan is still for silver. He gets about $500 per speech for telling about the "crime of '73." The fair company at Morgantown, Ky., has offered that sum for a speech during the fair next week. Silver is Bryan's good thing and of course he's going to push it along.

Is Bryan really eccentric or is he doing a shabby genteel specialty to win favor with the working people? The Globe-Democrat says he recently came to St. Louis with a brass pin sticking in the frayed hem of a trouser leg, and his hair was long, and his clothes cheap and showing evidence of long wear. The orator who gets $500 for a single speech, travels on passes and is toasted around by admiring friends, could afford better clothes—even if the Dingley tariff is in effect.

SCINTILLATIONS.

An Interesting Jumble Of News And Comment.

Georgetown will have a new gas plant.

A $15,000 brewery may be built at Lexington.

The Madison grand jury has indicted eight men for jukluxing.

Mastodon bones were found near Doverail, in Scott county, this week.

A number of German emigrants will locate in Lincoln county in December.

Major Ginter, who made $10,000,000 in the cigarette business, is dying in Virginia.

Phil Smith was fined $50 at Georgetown for pointing a loaded weapon at George Jackson.

Governor Bradley has ordered $2,000 paid over to the State Board of Health to be used in preventing the introduction of yellow fever in Kentucky.

Owing to scarcity of funds the State Treasury will only pay one-fifth of the amount due schools, instead of the 40 per cent. which should be paid now.

The grand jury has failed to return indictments against the lynchers of five men at Versailles, Ind. Did anybody ever hear of a lyncher being indicted?

A somnambulist walked out of an L. & N. car near Stanford and lost a couple of teeth and received serious bruises in a head-end collision with the track.

The Combs Lumber Co., of Lexington, secured the contract for the rebuilding the Lexington court house. Their bid was $30,070. It will not be fire proof.

A new Methodist Church, free from debt, was dedicated Sunday at Salem, Scott county, by Rev. E. H. Pearce, of Winchester, in the presence of 3,000 people.

The price of silver declined still further in New York Wednesday, reaching fifty-three and one-fourth cents, within two and one-fourth cents of the lowest price on record.

Frank Norris, 40, of Elkhart, Ind., is the unhappy father of twenty children. Married at 18, his wife twice presented him with triplets and four times with twins. The balance came on the instalment plan.

The Ledger says that the Maysville fair—with its races, balloon ascensions, Wild West show, Oriental dancer, floral hall, shooting tournament, etc., was a deserved success. The local press, which is largely responsible for making it a "go" is reaping the usual reward for such efforts—a small crop of "thanks."

Collector Yerkes, of the Eighth district, has been advised by the Secretary of the Treasury of the discontinuance of the services of seventy-five storekeeper gangers, three storekeepers and twelve gangers, ninety in all. These are Democrats whom Collector Yerkes recommended for discontinuance on account of superfluous force.

Under the new constitution all local and special acts under which local option has been exercised by counties and towns in Kentucky against the sale of intoxicating liquors expire, with the effect of removing prohibition in many counties and towns where no election has been held under the general local option law passed since the adoption of the new Constitution.

Depression of Spirits

so common in summer-time, accompanied by loss of energy, lack of thought-power, means a deficient supply of nourishment. The vital force is lost. It isn't a question of muscle and sinew, but of resistance and endurance. At any age, but especially in youth, it involves the risk of lung disease. Loss of flesh and a cough are threatening signs.

Scott's Emulsion of Cod-liver Oil, with the hypophosphites, meets these cases perfectly. It tones up, fattens and strengthens.

In Scott's Emulsion the taste of the oil is fully disguised, making it almost as palatable as milk.

GETTING READY

Every expectant mother has a trying ordeal to face. If she does not

Nature is not given proper assistance.

Mother's Friend

is the best help you can use at this time. It is a liniment, and when regularly applied several months before baby comes, it makes the advent easy and nearly painless. It relieves and prevents "morning sickness," relaxes the overstrained muscles, relieves the distended feeling, shortens labor, makes recovery rapid and certain without any dangerous after-effects.

Mother's Friend is good for only one purpose, viz.: to relieve motherhood of danger and pain.

Theatrical And Otherwise—Remarks In The Foyer.

Thos. Keene will appear at the Lexington opera house Monday and Tuesday nights in Othello and Richard III.

Judge Beard, of Shelbyville, has quoted hugs at $5 each. An intoxicated stranger who hugged two girls on the street was fined $10 for the offense. In Canada J. F. Hendricks, 76, was sued for $2,000 for kissing his niece, Mrs. Effie Pickney. She got judgment for twenty cents. Thus the Kentucky article shows its superiority.

The veriscope pictures of the Corbett-Fitzsimmons fight attracted a good sized crowd to the opera house Wednesday night. The pictures showed every movement of the fighters and were natural enough to excite the audience and win applause. The spectator could almost imagine he could hear Mrs. Fitz scream "Punch him in the wind, Bob!"

W. H. Davis, of the Fast Mail, (Eastern) writes from Wheeling that the company played to large business this week in West Virginia, and that the management is well pleased with his work. The company plays in Ohio until the 9th, in Pennsylvania until the 12, reaching New York state the 13th, and playing the next three nights in Rochester. Seeing Blind Dave, the fiddler, and his one legged wife, in Wheeling, brought memories of old Kentucky to Mr. Davis.

A Railroad Official's Experience.

MR. EDWARD EDMONDS, long connected with railroad construction in Nebraska, writes: "My heart troubled and pained me for 19 years. Shortness of breath was the constant and most common symptom. Intense, excruciating pain, generally followed any severe exertion. Faintness, hunger without any appetite; fluttering that made me clutch my breast, and palpitation that often staggered me as if I would fall, were frequent attacks. Again, everything would turn black if I arose from a stooping posture quickly. Sleepless nights with their prostrating unrest were numerous and I could get no rest day or night."

I consulted leading physicians and tried various remedies. They gave me no relief. One of Dr. Miles' circulars described my case so exactly that I took Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure and I am now a well man. I hope every one troubled with heart disease will try Dr. Miles' remedies. If they will write me personally, I will gladly give them full details of my experience." EDW. EDMONDS.
